Ohio's Country Journal and the Ohio Ag Net are affiliated companies of Agri Communicators Inc. Agri Communicators is located in Columbus, Ohio and was founded in 1972 by the late Ed Johnson. Ed was known as Ohio's ambassador for agriculture. The company is now owned and operated by his son, Bart Johnson and his wife, Sheryl.

The Goal of Agri Communicators is to provide the Ohio farming community the information they need to help make their farm profitable, while providing an enjoyable and entertaining experience through its print, radio, and online offerings.

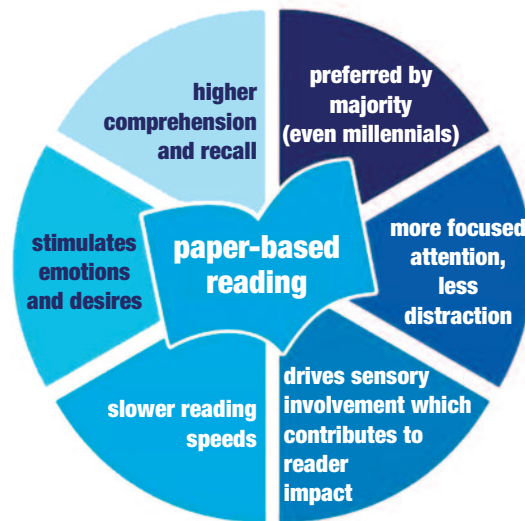

Ohio's Country Journal was first published in 1992. The Johnson family saw a need for a farm publication that focused solely on Ohio's agriculture and the people and events that make up Ohio's largest industry. The Ohio's Country Journal is published twice a month and is recognized as Ohio's premier farm publication.

What neuroscience says about why print ads work

Reading on paper is slower and deeper; paper readers remember more.
