Ohio's Country Journal and the Ohio Ag Net are affiliated companies of Ag Net Communications, LLC. The goal of Ag Net Communications is to provide the Ohio farming community the information they need to help make their farm profitable, while also providing an enjoyable and entertaining experience through our print, radio, and online offerings.

Ag Net Communications, LLC is located in Columbus, Ohio. The company is owned by the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, which purchased assets of Ohio's Country Journal and Ohio Ag Net from the Johnson family in 2020. The original company was founded in 1972 by the late Ed Johnson as Agri Communicators, initially producing daily radio reports for the ABN Radio Network and the then the weekly television show Agri Country.

Ohio's Country Journal was first published in 1992 to meet the need for a farm publication focused solely on Ohio's agriculture and the people and events that make up Ohio's most important industry. Ohio's Country Journal is published twice a month and is recognized as Ohio's premier farm publication.
